PART II - ARTISTIC PART - ORCHESTRA

1. PARTICIPANTS:

- youth brass bands from Poland and abroad

2. REGULATIONS

The first composition – shall be performed in a marching form - dynamic presentation. Brass orchestras may be present with a group of majorettes (cheerleaders),

The second composition – 'SCOUT ANTHEM' – obligatory for everyone (various arrangements are allowed, however, in case of joint performance by all orchestras, the arrangement adopted at the workshop shall apply),

The third composition – a form to choose from, for example, concert march, overture, 'dance' suite, film music, a mix of popular scouting tunes, etc.

The fourth composition – in any form, for example in the 'big-band' style, jazz music, folk music which can be performed with the soloist(s), instrumentalists or vocalist (small vocal group), accompaniment for a dance group, etc. What counts most is creativity, initiative and the ingenuity of the presentation (eg. instrumental theatre), an unconventional form for a brass band.

Compositions 2-4 will be performed on the stage set on the market square in Kielce. Also, the orchestras may have proposals to perform at 'around-festival' events with only their own repertoire - 20-30 minutes.

3. ASSESSMENT OF ORCHESTRAS

The jury shall assess:

- The assessment shall cover elements in the field of drill – parades (including playing of marches), music (selection of repertoire, quality of performance), general artistic expression and impressions during the presentation.
- The jury shall assess the presentation separately for the work performed during the march (parade) and separately for the composition performed on stage (static form).

4. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Ensembles shall not be required to send a DVD / CD with a recorded presentation programme. This shall be done only at the request of the Organiser.
